Data Privacy Statement for the EUMillennialsTOUR App and Website

The App developed for the EUMillennialsTOUR project, co-funded by the COSME programme of the European Union, is free to use and contains no advertisements.

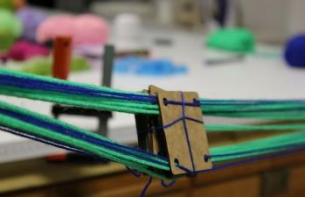

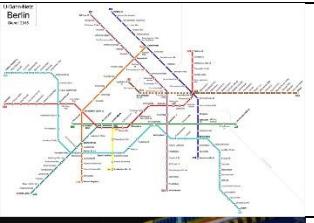

The App does not collect any user data. It does not use any data for internal purposes. No data will be distributed to third parties.

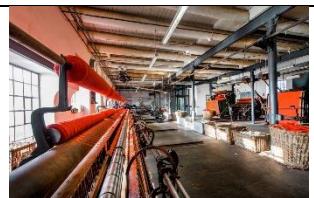

All project partners agree to these terms.

The provider of this App can prove that the copyright information regarding the pictures used in the App have been confirmed by the EUMillennialsTOUR project partners. The project partners take over the full responsibility that the texts and images are guaranteed to be for unrestricted use and there are no rights infringed by their publication or that the respective project partners have acquired all rights of usage / distribution for the texts and images, including secondary and tertiary exploitation rights.

The following chart displays these copyright information in detail.
